Amendment 1

Recital 10

(10) The need to equip young people with necessary key competences and improving educational attainment levels is an integral part of the Integrated Guidelines for Growth and Jobs 2005-2008, approved by the June 2005 European Council. In particular, the Employment Guidelines call for adapting the education and training systems in response to new competence requirements through better identification of occupational needs and key competences as part of Member States reform programmes.

Amendment 8

Annex, section 8, title "Essential knowledge, skills and attitudes related to the competence", paragraph 2

Skills relate to both appreciation and expression: self-expression through the variety of the media with individuals' innate capacities and appreciation and enjoyment of works of art and performances. Skills include also the ability to relate one's own creative and expressive points of views to the opinions of others and to identify and realise economic opportunities in cultural activity.
